

Anton Bashkin | CV
antonbashkin.atelier@gmail.com
antonbashkin.com

Anton Bashkin is a contemporary Neo-Baroque artist. His drawings have been exhibited at the National Academy Museum and he has two murals on display at The Waldorf Astoria in New York. His most recent series of work, Parthenon, elaborates on the Classical play by Aristophanes, Lysistrata.

Selected Exhibitions

2018 ||| [solo] Parthenon, St. Thomas Aquinas College, New York.

2018 ||| [as curator] Windows, Next to Nothing Gallery, New York.

2015 ||| [solo] Writing: Graphic Works ||| The National Academy Museum and School, New York.

2014 ||| [group] Creative Mischief ||| group exhibition, The National Academy Museum and School, New York.

2014 ||| [as curator] Notan: East to West ||| group exhibition, Palisades, Brooklyn.

Public Works

2015 ||| Lightning and Oak ||| La Chine at The Waldorf Astoria, New York.

2015 ||| Wild Horses ||| La Chine at The Waldorf Astoria, New York.

Education

2014 ||| The National Academy School and Museum, Diploma Program, Painting.